

ARIZONA JOURNALISTS

Formation of An Editorial Association.

Newspaper Men Gather in Phoenix.

L. C. Hughes, of the Tucson Star, Selected As the First President.

In response to a published call a number of Arizona journalists came in by train yesterday and joined with their Phoenix brethren in the organization of an Arizona Editorial Association.

A preliminary meeting was held during the afternoon in the Council Chamber, of which L. C. Hughes acted as chairman and C. W. Johnstone as secretary.

The following temporary committees were appointed: Upon Organization, Messrs. Vail and Dunbar; Constitution and By-Laws, Messrs. Brown and Morford; Telegraphic, Messrs. Hughes, Johnstone and Gill; Advertising, Messrs. Vail, Hicks and Brown.

At an adjourned evening session the Committee upon Organization reported the following named as members of the Association: N. A. Morford, Phoenix Herald; Ed S. Gill, Jas. H. McClintock, Phoenix Republican; J. O. Dunbar, and C. W. Johnstone, Phoenix Gazette; C. W. Miller, Tempe News; Herbert Brown, W. L. Vail, Tucson Citizen; L. C. Hughes, Tucson Star; Carlos Y. Velasco, Tucson Fronterizo; S. C. Bagg, Tombstone Prospector; John H. Marion, Prescott Courier; George B. Kelly, Solomonsville Bulletin; R. C. Brown, George W. Brown, Florence Enterprise; J. W. Dorrington, D. K. Allen, Yuma Sentinel; L. O. Hicks, Robert Hornbeck, Yuma Times; Jas. J. Chatham, Nogales Herald; Anson H. Smith, William Carlton, Kingman Miner.

The constitution and by-laws presented by Committee were approved and adopted.

For President of the new organization the choice unanimously fell upon L. C. Hughes, of the Star. Mr. Hughes accepted the position and the compliment in a neat address, in which he put especial stress upon the work that lay before the newspapers of Arizona in helping and leading the Territory to greater enlightenment and prosperity.

Organization was completed by the election of the following named to the several positions: First Vice-President, George W. Brown; Second Vice-President, John H. Marion; Third Vice-President, S. C. Bagg; Secretary, Walter L. Vail; Treasurer, John W. Dorrington; Executive Committee, N. A. Morford, John O. Dunbar, Ed S. Gill.

The matter of Associated Press reports was referred to the Executive Committee.

John W. Dorrington and George W. Meek were appointed a legislative committee.

By unanimous vote the following general advertising rates were adopted: For obituary notices and resolutions of respect, 10 cents a line; marriages, births, and funeral notices, 50 cents each; lodge meetings, festivals, suppers and kindred notices, local rates; all church notices, except for Sunday services, local rates; all announcement notices, local rates and no complimentary tickets to be received. It was ordered that commercial work be charged by the inch. Foreign advertisements in daily $1.50, net, per inch, in weekly $1 per inch per month, net, position not to be guaranteed.

The meeting then adjourned to meet today at 10 a. m.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Two four-horse teams left yesterday for Walnut Grove loaded with flour.

B. F. Baker's men returned yesterday from the Holmes ranch a band of horses, which he will ship to San Diego to sell.

The Blinn Lumber Company, having erected, at their yard near the depot, a neat frame building to be used as a office for the company.

Ben Goldman will leave today with several cars of cattle for the Los Angeles market. He is in company with Goldman & Co. shipped yesterday a carload of horses.

J. M. Burris left yesterday with a load of lumber and supplies for the United mine. Extensive preparations are being made to begin work at once on a larger scale on this mine.

Four prospectors fitted out with a pack outfit complete yesterday and started for the Bradshaw district, and another party of five fitted out and left for the Haqua Haqua country.

By special permit of Acting Mayor Barry the Chinese are allowed to celebrate their new year by firing crackers, etc., between the hours of 2 and 2:30 a. m. and 4 and 8 p. m. The celebration will continue a week.

Jennie Shurtliff yesterday began suit for a divorce in the District Court against Chas. F. Shurtliff. Gus H. Hirschfeld filed suit against the County of Maricopa to recover for services rendered in the Tax Collector's office.

There will be a regular meeting of Arizona Chapter No. 1, K. K. A. M., Monday, February 9, at 7 o'clock sharp, and a special meeting of Arizona Lodge No. 2, F. and A. M., at 8 o'clock, for the second degree. Visiting brothers cordially invited to attend.

An enthusiastic meeting was had in Yuma last Friday, and initiatory steps toward organizing a board of trade, for the purpose of furnishing data to parties making inquiries about the county. Edwin Mayes was elected chairman and L. A. Hicks was chosen secretary.

P. Pew is engaged in hauling the machinery for Chandler's steam dredger, from Tempe to the head of the Mesa canal. Other necessary arrangements for beginning work are about completed and as soon as the machine is on the ground and set up, the work of enlarging the canal will begin. Men are already engaged in the construction of the dam.

George Demick and Ike Hester started for Sentinel yesterday, Demick with two fourteen mule teams and Hester with one eight mule team to assist in hauling the machinery and material for A. G. Hubbard's stamp mill at Haqua Haqua. They will take a mammoth water tank along to haul water for use in crossing the desert. When these teams get to work they will make about sixty animals and fourteen wagons engaged in moving this material.

Three large freight teams brought in ore from the Crowned King mine yesterday and will load back tomorrow. Two other teams started out yesterday and the new road is reported much improved by travel and much larger loads are now hauled with the same teams than at first. The worst place in the road is said to be just above Frog Tanks, in Maricopa County, and travelers are of the opinion that it should be repaired by the county as it is a public road and the county would be liable in damages for any serious accident occurring.
